eat make share: a taste of immigration

Date and Time: Tuesday, May 5 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: 1240 North Shore Blvd E

Canada's food is as diverse as its people. The way we eat is shaped by over 400 years of immigration. Food connects people to the past, to place, and to other people. eat make share: a taste of immigration explores the connections between food and immigration in Canada through the universal experiences of eating, making, and sharing food.

- Discover the surprising histories behind popular Canadian dishes.
- Learn how individuals and communities express themselves through food.
- Engage in diverse food traditions practised in Canada through hands-on and multisensory activities.

eat make share: a taste of immigration is a travelling exhibition created by the Canadian Museum of Immigration at Pier 21 and presented by BMO, on view at Joseph Brant Museum April 18 – September 5, 2026.

Our Interior Mornings

Date and Time: Tuesday, May 5 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 440 Locust Street

The Collectif Petit Travers and the Debussy String Quartet join forces in this production, exploring the close links between the intimate and universal realms of their performers. The musicians and jugglers search the ways they shape their relationships with the world. Each artist's path is integrated into the tapestry of intimate testimonies and diverse musical and choreographic languages.

Artistic directors Nicolas Mathis and Julien Clément have undertaken this rich and reflective collaboration with the musicians of the Debussy Quartet and the music of Henry Purcell and Marc Mellits.

The North Sound

Date and Time: Thursday, May 7 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 440 Locust Street

For The North Sound, songs are a declaration of joy, a hallmark of yearning, and a tender tale of honesty. Yet amidst the rawness, trials and tribulations, there are notes of hope and happiness. This is the duo at their best: sharing stories in the way they know how.

Forged deep in Treaty 7 Territory, where the prairies rush towards the foothills, The North Sound is a partnership between lead singer, songwriter and multi-instrumentalist Forrest Eaglespeaker and vocalist and composer Ne vada Eaglespeaker. A fusion of authentic voices, crisp harmonies and rollicking/burgeoning indie folk-roots rock, the duo — a married couple — weave and wend through themes of family and connection, recovery and addiction. As partners who play and write together, the themes of family, love and sacrifice are inescapable — in their shared sojourn, Forrest and Nevada have forged the core of a rock solid collaboration. And at the heart and soul of the group is an incredible story of two people who stuck it out and found a collective voice to breathe life into tribulations and traditions.
