AIR SUPPLY

Date and Time: Thursday, September 15 8:00 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: The Burlington Performing Arts Centre, 440 Locust Street, Burlington, ON, L7S 1T7

Air Supply – it all began in '75. Graham Russell and Russell Hitchcock met on May 12, 1975, on the first day of rehearsals for the Australian production of Jesus Christ Superstar in Sydney. They became instant friends who shared much in common, including their love of The Beatles whom they'd both seen in 1964 in England and Australia respectively.

After the evening performance of Jesus Christ Superstar, they would play in Coffee Bars, Pizza Parlours, and anywhere they could to hone their vocal skills and harmonies. Graham wrote constantly and, with the help of Superstar Pianist Frank Esler Smith, they recorded a few songs on cassette, one of which was "Love and Other Bruises." After taking these demos to all the major record companies and being rejected by all of them but one — CBS Records — they signed a recording deal.

The trademark sound of Russell Hitchcock's soaring tenor voice and Graham Russell's simple but majestic compositions created a unique sound that would be forever known as Air Supply.

On May 12th, 2020, the band celebrated 45 years... the rest is music history.

Meet the Author: Robert McGill

Date and Time: Monday, September 19 7:00 pm - 8:00 pm

Address: 2331 New St

Speculative fiction author Robert McGill joins us in person for an intriguing discussion of all things "A Suitable Companion for the End of Your Life." Already receiving high praise, McGill's newest is a "a bold and absurd take on the dystopian plague novel, where people are treated like IKEA furniture." McGill has published both fiction and non-fiction books, and his writing has appeared in various literary and scholarly magazines. He teaches at the University of Toronto.

Before the session starts, you are welcome to email events@bpl.on.ca with your questions for the moderated Q & A. Please indicate the session date and title in the email subject line. The author will answer questions as time allows.

About A Suitable Companion for the End of Your Life

Distraught and hopeless, an eighteen-year-old distance runner, Regan, decides to end her life. And she'll do it through an unusual new method available only on the dark web. Enter Ulle, a woman with amnesia, who will, inadvertently, make Regan's wish come true. McGill's is darkly comic dystopian tale that probes our anxieties around boundaries, whether territorial or bodily, and our fraught desire not to die alone.

TOM COCHRANE with Red Rider

Date and Time: Tuesday, September 20 8:00 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: The Burlington Performing Arts Centre, 440 Locust Street, Burlington, ON, L7S 1T7

An iconic career which started in the pubs, rough neck bars and coffeehouses of the roads and highways of first

Ontario and then the rest of Canada and then the world has spanned over 4 decades. Tom Cochrane is characterized by creative, adventurousness and musical and personal integrity.

A few years into his tenure with Red Rider they graduated to larger venues, halls, arenas and festival stages. “The early days never leave you though, they get etched on your soul like a tattoo.” Within and without Red Rider, Tom has released 17 albums. Having helped shape the musical landscape for future generations of Canadian artists, Tom remains one of only 3 male Canadian singer-songwriters to have a diamond-certified album in Canada (over a million copies sold). Mad Mad World is now around 1.7 million in Canada, and at over 3 million worldwide. Songs such as Life Is A Highway and Lunatic Fringe have been international hits and continue to garner much airplay around the world.

Considering Matthew Shepard

Date and Time: Friday, September 23 7:30 am - 9:30 pm

Address: Port Nelson United Church - 3132 South Drive

Considering Matthew Shepard: Five area churches increase awareness of LGBTQ+ issues with free performance

At a time when hate crimes are on the rise in Halton Region, five local churches are cooperating to host Considering Matthew Shepard – a performance based on the life and diaries of a young gay man who suffered and was killed in a hate crime.

This moving event will contribute to our ongoing awareness around issues and concerns facing LGBTQ+ youth. It will provide an opportunity for healing and reconciliation between and among marginalized groups and the wider community.

This event is being offered to the public free of charge by the combined sponsorship of five welcoming, affirming and inclusive local churches who believe in an open community of faith, that welcome everyone. Together, these congregations strive to make Halton a community that embraces diversity – differences of age, mental and physical health and ability, religious background, marital status, family structure, sexual orientation, gender and its expression, racial and cultural identity, educational and socioeconomic status, and more. All are always welcome at Port Nelson United Church, Burlington Baptist Church, St. Christopher's Anglican, Grace United Church and St. Paul's United Church!

About *Considering Matthew Shepard

Craig Hella Johnson's three-part oratorio, Considering Matthew Shepard, will be performed in Burlington by the renowned Elora Singers, one of the finest chamber choirs in Canada. It is a fusion of musical styles, of poetry and prose, drawing from the events, the rural Wyoming setting, and from Matthew's own notebooks.

- DATE: Friday September 23rd, 2022
- PLACE: Port Nelson United Church, 3132 South Drive, Burlington, ON
- TIME: 7:30 p.m.
- COST: Free admission. If you are able, donations are accepted in advance or at the event in support of the Pflag Canada.
- DETAILS: <https://consideringmatthewshepard.my.canva.site/>

About Matthew Shepard

On a cold night, October 6, 1998, in a hateful homophobic act, 21-year-old gay university student Matthew Shepard was kidnapped, beaten, and strung on a fence outside of town in Laramie, Wyoming, a place he had lived and loved. He was found by a cyclist the next morning and died of his injuries several days later. The public outpouring of grief for the tragic end to Matthew's life was scarred by the sickening protests of hate group, Westboro Baptist Church. Years later, Matthew's name would be associated with changes to U.S. laws concerning hate crimes associated with homophobia.

Some 20 years after the event, Matthew's life, death, and the questions of humanity they evoke inspired composer Craig Hella Johnson to compose a three-part oratorio, Considering Matthew Shepard. It is a fusion of musical styles, of poetry and prose, drawing from the events, the rural Wyoming setting, and from Matthew's own notebooks. It merges the personal with the universal, life with death, ugliness with beauty, and seeks hope from what was a tragedy without redemptive purpose.

Southern Ontario Lyric Opera Performance 2pm – 2:30pm in the Main Theatre Southern Ontario Lyric Opera (SOLO), is a young, vibrant and dynamic Opera company with a dual goal of preserving and cultivating the multi-faceted art of opera for the dedicated aficionado, while also acquainting and educating those who are new to this exquisite and refined art form, through community outreach.

Burlington Symphony Orchestra Performance 3pm – 3:30pm in the Main Theatre The Burlington Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Denis Mastromonaco, is celebrating 50 years of making music. We are a full-size community orchestra serving Burlington, Hamilton and the surrounding area. The BSO is proud to fulfill an important cultural role within our city and add to the vitality of our growing community. As part of Culture Days, on September 24th the full BSO will perform several light favourites including the Main Theme from Star Wars and the Colonel Bogey March.

Burlington Student Theatre Performance 4pm – 4:30pm in the Main Theatre Learn, grow and belong to the Burlington Student Theatre, established in 1979. Children and youth ages 4–18 can participate in a range of performing Arts opportunities. We offer programs year-round with 4 performances annually at the Burlington Performing Arts Centre and have produced over 50 performances since the Centre opening in 2011. All tickets on sale beginning November for all Performances at Burlingtonpac.ca. Our team of passionate professionals will help build self-esteem, confidence, critical thinking and transferable skills. This afternoon, members of the Senior company age 14-17 will perform “Cell Block Tango” from their musical Chicago, performed right here in May, 2022. We are grateful for the support of the Burlington Community.

Meet the Author: Debbie Lanting

Date and Time: Saturday, September 24 2:00 pm - 3:00 pm

Address: 1996 Itabashi Way

Calling all bookworms! Join local children's author and debut novelist Debbie Lanting for a special literary hour as she shares from "Book Club," the first title of her new series, followed by a Q & A.

Milton-based writer Debbie Lanting has taught middle school students for over twenty years. During her commute home, she has often looked into the dimly lit windows of her public library at night, imagining the books coming to life. Book Club, her first novel and the first book of the Book Club trilogy, is the result.

About Book Club

Sometimes while reading, Kat swears that books come alive in her hands, taking her to distant places and on grand adventures. But it's not just her imagination when she and Stew, the only members of Oakmeadow Elementary's Book Club, discover living, breathing Books in their library.

The last thing Kat wants to do is let Jenna, a Ridge Rat from Oakmeadow's rivalry school, join their club, and tell her about the Books. But when Kat learns that the town council may close Oakmeadow, Kat must put her prejudice aside. It's only by teaming up with Jenna, the incredible Books, and the school's eccentric librarian that she can stop Oakmeadow's doors from closing for good.

The Future of Work - Free Exhibition

Date and Time: Thursday, September 29 10:00 am - 5:00 pm

Address: 1333 Lakeshore Road

Explore this free exhibition at the AGB through out the CUlture Days Celebrations from Sept. 23 - Oct. 16 2022. The Future of Work explores emerging and established diverse economies, radical new forms of production and alternatives to the ways in which industrial sectors exploit resources and workers. The free exhibition can be viewed Tuesday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Lee-Chin Family Gallery.

Sami Tsang: Know Your Place - Free Exhibition

Date and Time: Thursday, September 29 10:00 am - 5:00 pm

Address: 1333 Lakeshore Road

Explore this free exhibition as part of Burlington Culture Days from Sept. 23 to Oct. 16, 2022. Sami Tsang utilizes the power of clay to push back against the foundational social systems that inform those positions and structures. Her paintings and sculptural forms become conductors for conversation, processing, and reflections that destabilize the roles within the complex, prescribed family hierarchy. The works unfurl narratives of personal trauma, and the painful negotiation of building new relationships. View the exhibition Tuesday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Perry Gallery.

Read-Along on Residential Schools

Date and Time: Thursday, September 29 7:00 pm - 8:00 pm

Address: 2331 New St

Read "Genocidal Love" by Bevann Fox during the month of September, and then join us for an open dialogue ahead of Orange Shirt Day. Sherry Saevil, Indigenous Education Advisor for Halton Catholic District School Board, is our guest facilitator for the discussion.

A limited number of copies of Genocidal Love will be loaned to the first 25 BPL members who request the book when they register to attend the program. Please make sure you register using your library card number. If you have your own book (or a copy from another library system), you are also welcome to attend.

Bevann Fox is a member of Pasqua Nation, originally from Piapot Nation (Treaty 4 Territory). An award-winning author and TV host/producer, she received her Bachelor of Arts in Arts and Culture in 2012 and in 2018 her Master in Business Administration, Leadership from the University of Regina. She received an Indigenous Voices Award for "Genocidal Love," which was also honoured with two Saskatchewan Book Awards.

About Genocidal Love

How can we heal in the face of trauma? How can we transform intergenerational pain into a passion for community and healing?

Presenting herself as "Myrtle," residential school survivor and Indigenous television personality Bevann Fox explores essential questions by recounting her life through fiction. She shares memories of an early childhood filled with love with her grandparents—until she is sent to residential school at the age of seven. This is the story of Myrtle battling to recover her voice. It is a powerful confirmation of the long-lasting consequences of residential school violence—and a moving story of finding a path toward healing.

You do not have to be a Burlington Public Library cardholder to attend this event.

Love Someone - An Intimate Evening with JOHNNY REID

Date and Time: Thursday, September 29 8:00 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: The Burlington Performing Arts Centre, 440 Locust Street, Burlington, ON, L7S 1T7

Over an illustrious career spanning more than two decades, JUNO Award winning singer-songwriter Johnny Reid has captured the hearts of fans and audiences around the world. The critically acclaimed singer is widely known for his lyrical honesty and musical ability, as demonstrated by a vast catalogue of hit songs, platinum selling albums, 26 Canadian Country Music Awards, six JUNO Awards and multiple sold-out national arena tours.

On October 15, 2021, six-time JUNO Award winning singer-songwriter Johnny Reid released his brand new full length album, Love Someone via Universal Music Canada, the country's leading music company.

Love Someone is the artist's eleventh album and features 14-tracks in which Reid leans into his country roots. The album marks the artist's most intimate and inspired collection of songs to date. True to Reid's wide range of repertoire, the album is a refreshing blend of country, pop and soulful ballads. Highlights include the album's lead single, the pop country track, “Hey Delilah,” the beautifully heartfelt, “I Owe It All To You,” and “Have A Little Faith In Me” a cover of the John Hiatt classic. As a bonus, the album includes a special acoustic version of Reid’s moving song, “People Like You,” dedicated to the people of Nova Scotia after the devastating tragedy that hit their tight knit community in April 2020. In his new video series, Reid shares the stories behind Love Someone and reveals his songwriting process.

“Love Someone is a call to action,” says Reid. “The pandemic has taught us all a lot about the significance of time and how we spend it. We need to look out for each other now more than ever. ‘Roll your windows down, feel the sun, take some time, love someone.’”

Next up for the multi-platinum artist is a long-awaited live tour. The Love Someone National Tour is set to be one of the longest running Canadian tours in history. The extensive tour will go cross-country, mainly in small theatres in secondary markets, something Reid has wanted to do for quite some time as an opportunity to connect with his audience through storytelling on a more intimate level.

“Take a pinch of Bruce Springsteen, a dash of Bob Seger and enough Rod Stewart to give the mix vocal gravel, and you start to get the vibe of this Scottish-born singer/songwriter.” – The New York Post
